

H. T. SEAYER

The Hardware Man

BARTON,

VERMONT

Headquarters for

Garden Seeds in bulk and in packages

Refrigerators, Oil Stoves, Hammocks, Croquet Sets,
Lawn Swings, Lawn Mowers, Garden Tools, etc.

Why not keep a fire extinguisher around where it will be handy. We have the best one on the market and it costs only $8.50; your buildings are worth more than that.

FOR SALE

1170—LARGE FARM EQUIPPED—167 acres located on main road in Caledonia County, only 1 1/2 miles to pretty railroad town. Running water at house and barn. Plenty of wood and lumber for the farm. Good 9-room house 25x30 with large woodshed. Nearly new barn 40x55 with high drive and basement. Carriage house 20x50. 1000 sugar trees, 750 new tin and 300 wood buckets, new sugar house, sugaring-off rig, storage tank and hauling tank, a good rig. With the farm will sell 13 cows, 1 bull, 2 yearlings, 2 horses, cream separator, gas engine, mowing machine, rake, tedder, sulky plow, wheel, spring-tooth and smoothing harrows, pair sleds, sleigh, pair double harnesses, in fact everything needed to carry on a farm of this stamp. Price for everything $5000. This is a good farm, with good buildings, in a good location, and if you are interested in this kind of a farm come and see this one.

Catalogue Free

BARTON REAL ESTATE CO.

BARTON,

VERMONT

Mr. Man

Today is the best day to buy your new Spring Suit. A big selection in a variety of the newest models and fabrics makes buying here easy.

$10., $12., $15., $20.,

Come and see these before you buy, and come soon for it is getting late

A full line of Spring Hats and Caps, Ralston Shoes, etc.

"Your Clothier"

G. L. Merriam,

Barton

Verification of Savings Bank Books

The Citizens Savings Bank & Trust Company of St. Johnsbury, Vermont, give notice to all its depositors that they are required by law to present their savings bank books for verification during the month of MAY, 1913, to be verified during said month by a person authorized by the Bank Commissioner. It is desired that every savings bank book shall be presented for verification.

Citizens Savings Bank &amp; Trust Co.

St. Johnsbury, Vermont

April 15th, 1913.

Are you using our

Roller Process Meal

If not, you are not getting the best value for your money.

Molasses Feed,

Distillers Grain

And in fact a strictly first-class line.

Custom Grinding a Specialty

C. MacFarland &amp; Son

BARTON,

VERMONT

50 Veil Pin Sets

Rolled Gold Plate, bright polish regular 38c. value, 25c. per set. 50 Tie Clasps and 50 beauty pins, 38c. value, 25c. each. 25c. box stationery 15c. other grades correspondingly low. These prices during May.

Right Glasses

Cure wrong eyes. See Rutter at our store, Saturday, May 17th. He can fit your eyes with glasses that are right.

Both 'Phones

F. E. NELSON

Barton, - Vermont

For Sale

Farm on main road, three minutes walk to Catholic church and store, cream taken at door, R. F. D., on telephone line. Fine soil, will keep 12 or 15 cows with team, all machine mowing. Two thousand sugar trees, new sugar house and evaporator. Buildings good. Farming tools and stock to go with farm. Reason for selling poor health.

URIAH DINGMAN

East Albany, Vt.

Commissioners' Notice

Estate of Charles A. Day

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Honorable Probate Court for the District of Orleans, Commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust the claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Charles A. Day, late of Albany in said District, deceased, and all claims exhibited in offset thereto, hereby give notice that we will meet for the purpose aforesaid at the residence of J. A. Brown in the town of Albany in said District, on the 26th day of May and 28th day of October, next, from 1 o'clock P. M. until 4 o'clock P. M. on each of said days and that six months from the 26th day of April A. D. 1913, is the time limited by said Court for creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated at Albany this 6th day of May A. D. 1913.

FRANK W. TENNEY,

JOHN A. BROWN,

Commissioners.

Estate of W. Eugene Willis

District of Orleans, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District aforesaid.
To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of W. Eugene Willis late of Albany in said District, deceased.

GREETING:
WHEREAS, application hath been made to this court in writing, by the administrator of the estate, of said W. Eugene Willis, praying for license and authority to sell all of real estate of said deceased to wit: being house, barn and about one-half acre of land, occupied by said deceased in his lifetime as his home place, representing to all persons interested that it would be beneficial to the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money.

And bringing into Court the consent and approbation in writing of all the heirs to said estate residing in this state, and setting forth the situation of the real estate.

WHEREUPON, the said Court appointed and assigned the 31st day of May 1913, at the Probate Office in Newport in said District, to hear and decide upon said application and petition, and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order, together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate, all of which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing.

THEREFORE you are hereby notified, to appear before said Court at the time and place assigned, then and there in said Court to make your objections to the granting of such license, if you see cause.

Given under my hand at Newport in said District this 6th day of May, 1913.

B. M. SPOONER, Register.

For Sale

The noted general purpose stallion "Champion," 1300 lbs., 16 hands two inches high, color dark bay. Sired by Captain Junior, he by Captain a French Coach horse, imported from France, dam, a full blood Morgan mare. This stallion has good conformation, strong made, flat, bony legs, stylish, nice actor, an extra good roadster. There are a lot of colts in and around Stantstead that have been sold for good money, they are large and of uniform size, the kind that always sell for good prices and have only to be seen to be appreciated. Come and look him over.

J. W. ELDER

Beebe Plain, Vermont

Brighten Up

We have the goods to do it with Wall Paper Paint Varnish Campbell's Floor Finish Varnish Stain Kalsomine Colors in Oil Aluminum Paint and Gold Bronze Paint and Varnish Remover Stovepipe Enamel Paint for the sugar arch and smoke stack Roof Paint Wagon and Buggy Paint Varnish for Oilcloth and Linoleum Anything you may need in the Paint Line.

See our line of Gingham and Percales, House Dresses, Dresses for Misses and Children.

Underwear

for men, women and children in union and two-piece suits—also ladies' muslin underwear.

New Shoes and Oxfords Hats and Caps Raincoats for men and women. All new and up-to-date. Come in.

D. A. BRAHANA, Irasburg

HOLLAND

A new baby at Henry Rye's.

Frank Jenness is still unable to sit up.

Hazel Currier is visiting in Island Pond.

A. R. Hall was in West Charleston Monday.

Mrs. M. A. Sykes is in very poor health at this writing.

Quite a number of citizens have had their phones taken out.

George Gibson of St. Johnsbury was a caller in town recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray visited in Coaticook, P. Q., recently.

Charles Watson of Derby was in town on business recently.

Mrs. Herbert Aldrich visited her home at Island Pond recently.

Wilbur Little is the new cream gatherer for West Charleston.

Harry W. Hall is working for his uncle, A. J. Applebee at Lake.

Mrs. Hollis Wheeler has a sister, Mrs. Nichols of Morgan visiting her.

Orville Kelley is painting his buildings. Ernest Burbeck is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Stratton visited relatives in Fitch Bay, P. Q., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gage of Derby called at Hollis Wheeler's recently.

Norman Eastman of West Charleston was a business caller in town recently.

Adin Armstrong is painting and papering at William Palin's and Ed. Batchelder's.

Isaac Hackett has bought the Asa Moran farm at Derby Line and will move there soon.

Mary Farman of Derby academy visited her friend, Ruth Hill, over Saturday and Sunday.

There was a good gathering "Mothers' Sunday" at the Methodist church. Next Sunday Mr. Harris will have for his text, "Is there anything in Jesus to be afraid of?" Everyone is invited to be present.

GLOVER

Rev. Ozora Davis will deliver the Memorial day address here May 30. The pre-memorial day service on Sunday May 25, will be held at West Glover.

CHURCH NOTES

Mothers' Day exercises were witnessed by a congregation taxing the seating capacity of the Methodist church. Until further notice morning services will be held in the more spacious Congregational church. Evening services will generally be held in the Methodist church.

Some sixteen prospective Boy Scouts accompanied by the pastor, took a tramp of several miles Saturday. Dinner was eaten around the camp fire in the lee of a big rock. Some of the laws of scoutcraft were considered. A little time spent in games in the wood preceded the march home.

In place of the Epworth League service on Thursday evening a company will attend the special service under the leadership of Evangelist Lewis E. Smith in Barton.

There will be morning worship with sermon by the pastor at 11 a. m. on Sunday. Sunday school will be held at a little past twelve.

At 3.30 p. m. a meeting for children, conducted by Miss Althea M. Todd, Missionary to China, will be held.

At 7.30 p. m. Miss Todd will speak on the subject, "The New China." Through the kindness of Prof. H. J. Stannard of Barton the address will be illustrated by lantern slides.

On Monday afternoon there will be a meeting for women. Miss Althea Todd and Miss Jessie Marriott of Tehwa, China, will be present. Flags and curios will be shown, and refreshments will be served. The meeting will be held with Mrs. Dow.

No ordinary corset can give you the style, fit or comfort you can have in

Spirella
CORSETS
(NOT SOLD IN STORES)

I will call at your home by appointment, and give you any information on our corsets with no obligation on your part. Telephone or send postcard to

Miss Colburne

I have just received a lot of corsets at $1.00, 1.50, 2.00, 2.50, 3.00. I can give you corset satisfaction at my store or through the mail. No extra charge for Parcel Post.

Miss Colburne

Park Square

Barton, Vermont

MORGAN CENTER.

Fletcher Griffin has employment at Newport.

Geo. McKenney has moved to the Bowen farm.

Several parties here have had their phones removed.

Chandler Horn was a business visitor from Derby Saturday.

Mrs. Elmer Judd was the guest of friends in Orleans last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Flinn of Holland spent Sunday with friends here.

W. J. Scribner and Oliver Byron were business visitors at Newport Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Elliott visited at L. N. Elliott's in Island Pond Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Caswell is home from her work at West Burke for a few days.

Burney Gray of West Charleston was a business visitor in town last week.

W. P. Bartlett from Newport Center was the guest of friends in town last week.

Monty Barney has moved to C. J. Thomas's house on the corner at the Center.

Mrs. Blanche Stowell attended the funeral of a relative at North Troy last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Crowe from Brighton visited at B. J. Williams's Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Elliott of Orleans was the guest over Sunday of her aunt, Mrs. T. G. Gilman.

Mr. Bryant from Holland has moved to Hollis Wheeler's farm recently purchased of W. Barrager.

WESTFIELD

L. S. Woodworth visited in Enosburg Falls last week.

Will Sanville has moved into the house near Judge Gilpin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Benware of Coventry were callers in town recently.

Louis Bell, Lee Miller and Lyle Woodworth were home from St. Johnsbury academy over Sunday.

Mrs. J. Albro Hunt has so far recovered from her late serious illness as to appear on the street and attend church.

The Ladies' Aid society gave a supper in the church last Wednesday evening, which was attended by a large number. Rev. F. B. Hyde gave an interesting address. Receipts, $15.

Last week Deacon M. C. Hitchcock and Mrs. Hitchcock visited Deacon P. S. Hitchcock at Coventry, friends at Newport and the Griffins at West Newport. While at Mr. Griffin's, Deacon Hitchcock fell, injuring his hip.

The funeral of Mrs. Hiram Maynard was held at her late home on Thursday, May 1, Rev. F. B. Hyde officiating. The interment was in the Troy cemetery. Mrs. Maynard died in Worcester, Mass., as the result of a surgical operation. She was forty-five years of age. She is survived by her husband and eight children. Since the funeral, Mr. Maynard has moved to Baker's Mills in Troy.

NEWS FROM IRASBURG

MRS. F. A. FIELD, LOCAL EDITOR

Mrs. Charles Dion is in very poor health.

Orell Clark was home from Newport over Sunday.

Murray Pike is home from his school in Barton on account of illness.

Miss Iva Allen spent Tuesday with Mrs. Leland Herman of Coventry.

A few additional Irasburg items will be found on page six of this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey visited friends in Hardwick over Sunday.

The band will play on the common next Saturday evening, the weather permitting.

Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Wells attended the gospel meetings in Barton last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martell and little daughter spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. H. B. Chamberlain.

Thirteen thousand trout were received from the U. S. hatchery yesterday and placed in the brooks about town.

Mrs. D. H. Coburn, who recently underwent an operation at the Royal Victoria hospital in Montreal, is expected home this week.

Mrs. Jennie Hyde of Somerville, Mass., and Edward Strobidge of Barton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Goss over Sunday.

Mrs. Azuba Hancock and Mrs. Hollis Hancock of Coventry were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. David Prance yesterday.

Miss E. M. Skinner was called to her home in Brownington Friday by the illness of her mother. Miss Helen Lemos had charge of her school during her absence.

Mrs. P. H. Brewster of Billerica, Mass., arrived last week Thursday to spend several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Shepherd, who are in feeble health.

As Mrs. Nelson Aiken was returning home from Orleans last Thursday, the horse became unmanageable, throwing Mrs. Aiken out of the wagon, inflicting quite a gash in her head besides a severe shaking up.

Strayed from Irasburg Saturday afternoon, one R. N. Baldwin, last seen Sunday morning going in the direction of Hyde Park with a band of gypsies. Any information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received.

The remains of Mrs. C. A. Dodge of Orleans were brought here for burial Tuesday, May 6. Mrs. Dodge won many friends during the years she lived in town and was loved by all who knew her. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. Dodge in his bereavement.

The Black River Valley grange held its regular meeting Wednesday evening, May 7, the first and second degrees being conferred on candidates.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells, and Arthur True of Newport were visitors from Newport grange. The question of Independent telephone line was discussed by nearly all brothers and sisters, with great enthusiasm. Mr. Richmond and Mr. Wells gave us some very interesting information on this subject. The grange elected a committee to call a meeting of the townspeople to get their mind. Thus far the people as a whole are greatly interested and hope to see this carried out. Refreshments were served. Next meeting May 21st. Let every one make an effort to be present.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet at the town hall next Thursday, May 15th. Dinner will be served from noon till all have been served.

The usual meeting of the Epworth League will not be held this week.

Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock, Miss Althea Todd, a returned missionary, will give an address under the auspices of the W. F. M. society. The meeting will be held at the church. Miss Todd is an interesting and impressive speaker, and we wish for her a good congregation.

Choir rehearsal Friday evening at G. W. Russell's.

You can have our church paper, Zion's Herald, from now until January 1st, 1914, for one dollar. Give the pastor your order at once, and let this fine paper speak for itself.

Services will be held at the usual hours next Sabbath. The subject of the children's sermon will be, "Picture Taking." Children, you have just two more Sundays in which to try to keep the Class Banner.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NOTES.

Next Sunday the pastor preaches in Derby Center in exchange with Rev. C. E. Gordon of that place. The Sunday services will be held at the usual hours.

Mrs. J. C. Carpenter has been elected delegate to the state convention to be held at St. Johnsbury, May 20-22.

The delegates to the county association at Barton June 3 and 4, are Mrs. H. C. Goss, Amos Gould, J. B. Tinker and W. J. Heath. The pastor expects to attend both gatherings.

The Ladies' Aid society and Men's club will be entertained Friday evening, May 16th by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gregory on the W. L. Locke farm. It is hoped that all members and their friends will plan to be present. Gov. G. H. Prouty of Newport will give an account of his recent trip to Norway. Members of the Ladies' Aid society will bring cake. A double team will leave the block at 7.15 o'clock to convey all who wish to go that way.